New Homes Building To Help Relieve The Shortage Of Houses

Nevada City and urrounding sections are experiencing an upward trend in home building and renovation. Among the many listed in building activity are the following:

Steger and Sons laid the foundation a few days ago for a new two room cottage in the Glenbrock section, near Lake Olympia, for John Legg. They will start the erection of a three room cottage on the same property as soon as the other is completed. Mr. Legg has built about five other houses on his property and all are rented.

NEW COTTAGES STARTED

Today John Bertelson started the foundation of a neat little cottage for Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ewing, on a plot of land they purchased last year from M. Ivan Dow. It is about two miles above Nevada City on the Tahoe Ukiah highway, in the Dow tract of land that is being sold to home sekers in lots.

August Corrini, who lost his home by fire in the Glenbrook section, near the Standard Oil plant, has let the contract for rebuilding to John Bertelson.

A deal was completed Saturday in which Byron Douglass sold his property on Long Street the old Chris Coolidge place, to Mr .and Mrs. Zonico Velegich, the latter having moved here from Arizona about a year ago.

HICKS PROPERTY SOLD

Several months ago Mr. and Mrs. J. Meyers of Sacramento purchased the old Hicks property, in the Gold Flat section, near the high railroad trestle. They have remodeled the house until it is now a modern home. A pretty feature is the tall chimney made of mortar and round stones gathered locally, adding an artistic touch to the newly painted home.

The former Solaro property on Sacramento street, recently purchased and remodeled by Miss Andrews is being surrounded by a pleasant garden which is already adding much to the charming setting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher who have come to Nevada City within the last few months have purchased property from Jack Vivian on Piety Hill in Nevada City, and are soon to start erection of a new home.

DONALD STEGER HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Murchie have had extensive inprovements made on their property on upper Broad st., Fred Tredennick is doing the work.

The two new cottages being built by Karl Kopp on his Nimrod street property in Nevada City, are practically completed and will make an even dozen houses he has built on the property since he bough it about a year ago.

STUDIO HILL

A. J. Balmforth, who has completed the erection of six new cottages in the Glenbrook district near Shaw's orchard, has subdivided the lots above the cottages and will soon start building a read through the grounds. This property commands a magnificant view and is to be known as Studio Hill.

Mrs. Willits, of San Francisco recently purchased a large lot from E. Lewis which adjoins the Balmforth property on the west, and has nearly completed a beautiful home.

Several lots were sold to home seekers at the edge of the Nevada County Golf Course on the south east edge facing the Nevada City-Grass Valley highway, and a number of small homes have been built.

Several deals are pending in and around Nevada City that will add a number of new homes to this thriving community.

SUPERVISORS AWAIT GOLD FLAT PETITION

The Board of supervisors meeting today were requested to remain in session until the Gold Flat tax payers, could get their petition in protesting against the inclusion of that district in the Nevada City high school district. It was reported that a majority of the residents there have signed such a petition, led by Joseph Day, and will present it late this afternoon.

There are thirteen pupils attending high school from the Gold Flat school district. According to Mrs. Ella Austin, county school superintendent, the tuition, which they will have to pay will probably approximate $40 per year per pupil, in event the petitioners succeed, and the supervisors are obliged to rescind their action. This will amount to approximately $520, which is considerably more than the district was likely to be taxed. In any event the district will be obliged to tax itself to raise sufficient money to cover tuition fees.

R. L. P. BIGELOW ATTENDS CONFERENCE IN S. F.

R. L. P. Bigelow, supervisor of the Tahoe National Forrest, left yesterday for San Francisco where he will participate in conferences with other forest supervisors regarding the management of the Civilian Conservation Corps, camps, of which nine, accomodating 200 men each, will be located in this area. Mr. Bigelow expects to return next Saturday.

GOLDEN CENTER TO RUN TUNNEL

The Golden Center mine, in the heart of Grass Valley, is planning an extensive development program.

The Cooley Butler interests, following the remarkable strike made with a shot intended to be the last have now determined, it is reliably stated, to drive a tunnel 700 feet long through Church Hill into the Scotia ground, which is also owned by the same interests.

Two large trucks and trailers came up from Los Angeles last week with part of the Diesel engines to be installed at the mine. The rest of the huge engine will arrive in a few days. When completed this engine will generate enough power to operate the 20 stamp mill, pumps, compressor and hoist.

In installing a Diesel plant for his mine power, Leland S. Wincapaw, superintendent, estimates that he will cut his power bill about 50 per cent.

INCUMBENTS RE-ELECT TO CITY SCHOOL BOARD

Sixty seven votes were cast Saturday afternoon at the election of school directors held in the Washington grammar school. R. J. Bennetts and J. F. Colley, incumbents, were re-elected without opposition.

G. V. CHAMBER RESTORES TAIOST DEITIES ABODE

Over 50 years ago when the Chinese population of Grass Valley numbered some 1,500 souls, a Taiost Joss house was built. Today the numbers of worshippers there has dwindled to one lone survivor, the venerable Louie Wong. This ancient Oriental patriarch has faithfully tended the altars and worshipped before the hallowed shrine of his ancestors for more than half a century.

But last winter the heavy snows crushed in the roof of the earthly home of the celestial deities. The Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce hearing that the venerable Wong was crawling in and out of the abode of the Exalted Spirits over the wreckage and by way of a window, was moved to tender their good offices in restoring this building of much historic interest to complete repair. This work is proceeding under the supervision of Herman Essac. When done, Wong will once more be able to worship the gods of his fathers in peace and comfort.

NEV. CO. DAIRIES BUTTERFAT LBS. OUTPUT 280,313

SACRAMENTO, May 1—(UP)—Nevada county dairies produced 280,313 pounds of milk fat last year to aid California in maintaining its reputation as one of the leading dairy states in the west, according to a report of the state department of agriculture.

The total milk fat production of th estate amounted to 150,682,156 pounds, a slight decrease from the 151,280,510 pounds produced in 1931.

"Cheese maintained its lead as a major dairy product with an increase of 1,756,830 pounds to bring the total production up to 11,994,923 pounds for 1932, but cottage cheese suffered a drop of 4, 885,866 pounds," the departmental dairy service reported.

A feature of the year's production, however, was the sharp increase in the consumption of ice milk, a product similiar to ice cream with the execution it does not contain as much butter fat.

The ice milk production for 1932 was placed at 1,799,580 gallons, as compared to 461,633 gallons for the previous year.

Evaporated milk was the only other dairy product to enjoy increased production. The output of evaporated whole milk jumped from 182, 901,563 pounds in 1931 to 204,282,804 pounds last year.

IMPROVEMENT MADE IN DRUMMOND STREET

Drummond street, in the West Hill section of Nevada City, has been widened and ballasted with rock for a length of 200 feet, under the supervision of Superintendent Herbert Hallett.

This has been one of the narrow streets in this city and the extra width will make it much easier for traffic.

May Day Bombers Rock Chicago Loop

CHICAGO, May 1—(UP)—Two persons were injured and $50,000 of damage was done when May Day demonstrators exploded bombs in big corporation buildings, rocking the Loop with their terrific detonations.

The police department immediately threw guards around all public buildings in that secion.

Among the buildings damaged by explosions were Marshall Fields, uniform division, Illinois Bell Telephone, Willet Bus & Trucking Co., Sprague Warner Wholesale Crocery ,and Hibbard Spencer Bartlett Hardware Co. After inspecion, the police said these buildings had aparently been selected as representatives of large corporations rather than from any special animosity on the part of May Day demonstrators.

W. G. ROBSON ON DUTY AS CHIEF OF POLICE

W. G. Robson, newly appointed chief of police, assumed the duties of his office today. He reported this afternoon that, owing to the rain which made pavements slippery and uncertain, nature was attending to his duties. Drivers were cautious and no arrests were made.

Mr. and Mrs. Robson returned last week from a trip to Southern California where they spent ten days sight-seeing. Chief Robson, commander of the Nevada City Commandery of the Knights Templar attended a Commadery Conclave at Riverside as delegate from this city.

While in Riverside Mr. and Mrs. Robson visited Mt. Rubideaux, where the great Easter Sunrise services were held. They also enjoyed the Riverside drive and other famous esplanades in that section which attract thousands of motorists annually.

FRANCIS BELLE MINE SHAFT IS DOWN 150 FEET

Thomas Coan, who is developing the Frances Belle mine on the old Hussey property in the Willow Valley district, brought a fine specimen of ore to the Nugget office that was taken from the 125 foot level.

Mr. Coan estimated that the specimen he brought to the office would average about $50 a ton. Three laboratory tests made of this ore ran as follows: $71.40, $234.00 and $18.80.

The shaft is down 150 feet but they are drifting on the 125 foot level where this fine ore is being taken from a ledge that averages a foot to 18 inches in width. They have quite a lot of ore exposed and the mine has all the promise of making a splendid producer. It is located slightly east ,but practically along the same vein system as the Murchie to the south and the Hoge Development Co. to the north.

Lack of money has been the principal handicap in operating the property. It has been proven that the ore will require flotation process in order to secure all the gold values.

Former state mineralogist Fletcher and associates came up from the bay district and inspected the property. He gave promise that in a short time he felt certain he could raise enough capital to go ahead with development.

Lloyd Root, a former state mineralogist, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eastman and Mrs. L. D. Bacigalupi visited the Coan property last week and were greatly pleased with the looks of the rock being taken out.

REVOLVER SHOT ENDS LIFE OF GEO. GARBETT

George Garbett living in the Birmingham residence near the Idaho-Maryland mine, died early this morning from a revolver shot through his head, which Sheriff George Carter believes was self-inflicted. According to the story told by Birmingham, who resides in part of the house occupied by Garbett and his wife, the couple were quarreling and drinking through the night. About 4 o'clock this morning Birmingham knocked on the door and remonstrated with them, according to his statement. A fem minutes later a shot was heard and Garbett was found expiring.

The Garbetts came to Nevada county from Utah last September. The couple had been married a year.

MINING ACTIVITY IS REFLECTED IN FREIGHT

W. A Wenneson, traffic manager of the Nevada County Narrow Gauge Railroad company, a visitor in the Nugget office Saturday, states that the railroad is reflecting in freight business the inceased activity of this mining district.

Fred Harvey of Galt, formerly interested in gravel mining in this section, has been a Nevada City visitor for days. He is negotiating for the purchase of a well known gravel property east of Nevada City.

DRUNK DRIVING CHARGE AGAINST CITY FIRE CHIEF

Byron Landrigan, chief of the Nevada City Fire Department, was arrested yesterday morning on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcoholic liquor, following one of the most spectacular automobile collisions in recent weeks.

The accident occured at 4 o'clock yesterday morning in front of the Log Cabin service station of the Nevada City-Grass Valley highway. Landrigan proceeding toward Grass Valley met Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gordon who were enroute to Nevada City.

According to the story Gordon told Traffic Officer J. E. Blake, Landrigan was driving on the wrong side of the road. Gordon pulled off the pavement onto the dirt in an effort to avoid a collision, but the crash occured anyway. Landigan's car hit the Gordon car carrying away one front wheel and flattening out the side. Landrigan's car then glanced off and went through a barbed wire fence and stopped in a field alongside the road.

Mrs .Gordon was badly hurt and this morning an X-Ray examination was made to determine the extent of her injuries. She suffered contusions of shoulders and chest and it is believed some bones were broken. Gordon escaped anything more than a bad shaking up and a few bruises. Landrigan was unhurt save for a badly bruised nose.

Traffic Officer Blake arrested Landrigan, and Gordon swore to a complaint charging him with drunken driving. His hearing before Judge W. L. Mobley was set for next Thursday morning. He was lodged in jail and released on bail today.

CHAMBER AIDS HI BAND TRIP

The Nevada City Chamber of Commerce Friday night voted to grant $40 toward defraying the expenses of the Nevada City high school band when it enters the state-wide competitive series of concerts to be held May 13 in the Civic Audotorium of San Francisco. They will leave Nevada City Friday afternoon before the concert spend the night in a San Francisco hotel and the following day will play in the great contest with other high schools which are sending their bands there from every part of Califonia.

The National Association for Music is offering a splendid trophy for the winning band. Members of the band are in high hopes that even if they do not win the trophy they will receive honorable mention.

The band is endeavoring to raise as much money as possible through their own efforts, and will give a concert next Thursday evening in the Nevada City theatre. The public is cordially invited to hear this concert as it promises to be the best program yet rendered by the band, members of which will appear in their natty uniforms of purple, gold and white.

THE PEACE ARMY

The Civilian Conservation Corps, or the "peace army" for short, is now being rapidly organized. Men between 18 and 25 years of age are being recruited in many large cities of the United States, conditioned under U. S. Army training and medical supervision, and will presently, by the middle of May, be shifted to various camps in the National Forests and Parks.

Eighteen hundred of these men have been assigned to the Tahoe National Forest region of which Nevada City is the headquarters. These 1800 men will receive thirty dollar a month. A large proportion of that money will be sent directly by the paymaster to dependent relatives. Little of heir monthly check will be spent locally in all probability.

On the other hand, the Federal government must spend at least thiryt dollars per month for clothing, food, beds and shelter for each one of the peace army. That should be a wonderful stimulus to agricultural industries and the counties in which these men work, should be the first to feel that stimulus demand for dairy products will be large.

Another aspect of the benefit to flow directly from the work of this army of forest workers will be the advance of the forest improvement program by, perhaps, twenty years. Measures for preventing forest fires, establishment of new auto tourist camps, the building of motor trails and roads, the erection of much needed buildings in various locations, will be carried to completion during the time this corps of young workers is employed by Uncle Sam in this section.

In counting our blessings, to use a term which is becoming a bit old fashioned, we should reckon with those that will come from these forest camps, located in our district and add it in with the new impetus which has been given the mining industry in this county.

THE EDITORIAL CIRCUIT RIDER

George Bernard Shaw evidently didn't miss the mark very far when he referred to the American people as "boobs," in the opinion of some California editors.

The fact that approximately 5,000 persons in New York paid good money to hear him ridicule our customs and institutions was viewed as casting at least some doubt upon the American national sanity.

Referring to an Eastern Congressman's characterization of Shaw as a charlatan, the Oroville Mercury-Register said:

"We would rather characterize Shaw, however, as one who has achieved a reputation as a coiner of startling phrases and is so proud of it and so determined to maintain it that he will go to any lengths. He is rated as a wit, and all of us know that a man with such a reputation often becomes the most tiresome creature in the community."

"After all, however," comments the Vallejo Times-Herald, "Bernard Shaw has some justification for his allegation that we are 'foolish children.' When some 5,000 good Americans will pay upwards of ten dollars a seat to fill the Metropolitan Opera House of New Work, and then applaud his every aspersion on our national character, then we have earned the wisecracks' which so many Europeans heap upon us.

"For more than an hour and a half," according to the Long Beach Press-Telegram, "he effervesced for the 5,000 bankers, authors, musicians, professors and miscellaneous leading citizens.' He wielded his slap stick and pounded America and Americans with his stuffed club. With a hundred variations on the theme, he told his listeners that they were boobs, that they were such boobs that they liked being called boobs—and they did like it."

"After all," asks the Chico Record, "do we have anyone but ourselves to blame? We wanted him to be voluble and witty and sarcastic and outrageous, and he has seemed to gratify that wish. Nobody could ask so many foolish questions as Americans have asked Shaw without being laughed at."

The proposal of a London newspaper to "cede" Shaw to the United States "in final and absolute payment of the war debt," however, is a suggestion that deserves the closest scru-

"Even if the United States were willing to complete this tiny, according to the Salinas Index-Journal, which adds:
deal, there is still an obstacle to be hurdled. That obstacle is Shaw himself, who would probably think the United States was being overpaid."

"The proper reception and subsequent treatment of Shaw in this country would have been to ignore him utterly," remarked the Glendale News-Press. "It was a mistake to give him a chance to grimace and drool and rebuff proffers of hospitality. To a certain degree it confirmed his proclaimed estimate of Americans. He had said that they would kowtow to him, and some of them did, inviting the slaps their servility merited."

WEEKLY COMMENT

CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN

W. R. Hearst and his remote control scribes have found another gaudily dressed scarecrow to dangle before "their public"? This time it is the alleged relinquishment by congress of some of their constitutional powers.

I would not find it possible to believe that our representatives at Washington are so silly as to delegate their powers to a man whom they did not KNOW can be trusted to handle any and all affairs which they deem advisable to LET him handle; nor is it conceivable that F. D. R. could be so dumb as not to seek advise when need shall arise.

Even his highest paid writer Arthur ("his man Friday") Brisbane, reflects a Hearst controlled brain, and spouts at length about the "terrible Roosevelt" debacle which they all predict will follow the congressional giving of power to Roosevelt. Personally I view with suspicion any of their attempts to scare, because in following their writings for a number of years I have always found that the inevitable "ethiopian in the woodpile" is cerain to burst forth sooner or later.

Commodity prices are still advancing and the stock markets are gaining. The thing which is most helpful is that their strength is apparently not trasitory. Of course no one in their right senses wants ever again to see stocks go as far beyond their actual worth, or earning power as they did during the last mad dash upward. Because, when the strathtosphere is reached in stock manipulation ,the selling and buying, which is lifeblood to the stock market, is liable to give out and the unavoidable out-of-control certainly sickening.

In many recent issues of all of the metropolitan papers there are many comon typographical errors, misspelling, run together words, transpositions and all the small errors which are annoying, and although the Nugget at all times tries to avoid errors of this kind, we welcome the Big Boys to the sometimes we too may err club."

Well, believe it or not, another fishing season has arrived and are the anglers staying home? They are not and if numbers count for anything the elusive trout will be up against some army again this year. There was brisk trade in fishing tackle for the last few days, and the north country is having an unusual number of new fishing residents. The waters are swift and clear and I heard it predicted that the trout would be taking to flies very soon. I know how to catch catfish if someone will take them off the hook for me.

AND AGAIN now ALTOGETHER LETS TELL THE WORLD TO COME THROUGH NEVADA CITY ON THEIR WAY TO THE MOUNTAIN PLOYGROUNDS.

Just as I was ready to put the old typewriter away, I heard some voices and some youthful laughter right near the house and looking out of the window saw 15 or 20 young people preparing to have an old fashinoned picnic, they were drinking—no you are wrong—milk.

Three of them locked arms and went hippityhopping in great glee and with much laughter, if they don't look out I'll go out and show them how we hippityhopped in 1896. And were we the cutups?

CALIF. HONEY CROP IS WORTH MILLION

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—(UP)—California, you might say, has a bee in her bonnet.

Several, in fact, because a report of the state department of agriculture reveals that a total of 19,525,000 pounds of honey was produced in the state last year.

This production was credited to the 8,885 apiaries, which include 254,839 colonies, registered from the 44 counties in which honey is produced commercially.

Department records show the Nevada county registration to be three apiaries and 38 colonies of bees.

The actual income from honey and other hive produces was estimated at $1,000,000. An additional $9,000,000 was credited to the industry by the department as the value of pollenization of fruit and other crops by the bees.

Owing to the fact that the third Thursday of each month has been stormy, this is the first meeting held this year. A very pleasant social hour was enjoyed followed by dainty refreshments.

Mr. Stanley Bice has nearly completed building a new porch across the front of the parsonage. This greatly improves the appearance of the parsonage as the old porch had nearly rotted away with age.

Mr. John Goodyear and Mr. J. Jeffery of Winters were callers on F. M. Harris Sunday morning. They were enroute to Downieville to inspect a gravel mine near there.

Miss M. Clerkin of San Juan and Mrs. A. Browning of French Corral attended the funeral of Mr. Young in Nevada City on Friday.

Hectic Days- Sleepless Nights

TOO MUCH work, too much mental strain, too much worry ....then "NERVES". How they torture you, tire you, keep you awake nights!

"NERVES" make you irritable, restless; give you Headache, Indigestion...."NERVES" make you look and feel old....weaken resistance and pave the way for serious nervous or organic trouble.

J. M. Foster, a druggist, suffered tortures from Over-wrought Nerves. He had dozens of so called "Nerve Remedies" in his store. One by one he tried them without relief until....But let Mr. Foster tell his experience in his own words.

"I think Dr. Miles' Nervine is the best nerve medicine made, and that a better one cannot be made. Dr. Miles' Nervine was the only medicine on the shelf or in the prescription case that put me on my feet." J. M. Foster, Druggist Marysville, Ohio

"Scatter the Blossoms"

To-day is the day to be loving and kind,
To be happy and give a friendly smile;
If things go wrong do not mind,
For kindness travels many a long mile
If you scatter the blossoms as you go along.

To every one be honest and true;
For there is always one who appreciates you.
And you never need to feel lonesome and blue,
As long as your kindness help a few.

So scatter a few blossoms as you go along,
It will be something to gladden,
And something to charm;
And some one will be able to face the storm;
And, maybe kept from harm
If you scatter a few blossoms, as you go along.

—BERTHA JOY DELLA.

QUAIL HUNTING

By ALF NETZ

One day I went a-hunting
To get two quail or three
But every time I'd see a flock
They'd fly away from me.

At last I got disgusted,
For I didn't have a quail.
So I walked home and got some wheat
And put i tin a pail.
I then went back to this same place
And spread wheat on the ground,
I then hid in a bush until
A flock of quail came round.

When I was sure I'd get one
I cocked my 12 gauge gun
And when I'd finished shooting
I'd killed them every one.

That night while I was walking home
Laden with my loot,
I thought I'd start a business;
Teaching how to shoot.

BAKERY PAGEANT

By CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN

In the soft balmy climate of public approval, there has existed for many centuries one of the largest kingdoms on earth, overlapping all kingdom and republics, holding its subjects together with good taste and delicacy. Over this vast kingdom the Cream Puff dynasty of the kings of the bakery are still holding sway by the will of the people.

Queen Fruit Cake the consort of King Cream Puff, is a descendant of one of the noblest families in the whole kingdom. She rules without seeming to do so, with good taste—first in mind. Her domination is so soft and gentle that her subjects become almost fanatical in their worship of the Queen, and it is not an occasional one who thinks well of her, for she has endeared herself to everyone. But aside from her popularity she is known to be very wise, and keeps in constant touch with her subjects through her emmissaries which are in every bakery in the land.

Inasmuch as King Cream Puff had so able a helpmeet, he found it possible to take life easy and the most strenuous exercise in which he took part was when on every Saturday in full royal regalia, together with Prime Minister Jelly Roll to review his army of loyal soldiers consisting of sugared doughnuts, fat and roly poly decorated with crystals of the whitest sugar, which shimmered in the bright morning sun. Also, and in contrast to these there was a contingent of plain doughnuts, a little more stodgy and with plain brown coats, but nevertheless the pride of the kingdom.

And look at that shocktroop of breads, commanded by Major White Captain French, Lieutenant Brown, Second Lieutenant Pumpernickle, and of course all the "non com" breads, with golden crusted uniforms so spick and span, and outside coats of rainproof sanitary wax treated paper in the brightest colors. This contingent of the Kings army was not as showy as the rest, but it must be admitted that it was the backbone of the whole army.

Then there was a whole division of large and small snails—(who did duty in the morning when everybody was having coffee)—never more beautiful than now, they were dressed in white uniforms trimmed all around with lovely brown nuts, or embroidered with shreds of the finest cocoanut. And by a large margin these soldiers looked fit for anyone to put faith in, in time of need.

The full cake band of forty varieties were so beautiful in their new celophane capes, as to beggar discription. Their instruments,—new golden butter horns were scintilating in the sun.

As the baton of Colonel Stollen was raised ready to start the band playing The Sweet Dough Parade, the national march of the bakery kingdom.

RIVAL SHOWMAN TO VISIT GOV. ROLPH

SACRAMENTO MAY 1.—(UP)—No, this isn't going to be a convention of "masters of ceremonies."

Lieutenant Governor Victor A. Meyers, of Washington, ex-orchestra leader, is to make a tour of California in the near future, and will call on Governor Rolph, according to advices from the Seattle chamber of commerce.

"Governor Meyers is a great showman," said the letter, but the California governor is an odds-on favorite to show the northerner some of the fine points on how to "conduct a show."

Pan Club Changes Hands

ROAD MILES IN STATE 77,000

By MELVIN LORD

SACRAMENTO, May 1—(UP)—California has enough roads to go three times around the world.

A survey made by the state department of public works revealed there is a total public road mileage in the state of approximately 77,000 miles.

"Of this total, 7,350 miles are included in the state highway system, leaving approximately 69,500 miles of county roads." the report said.

"Of the county road total, about 47,500 miles are unsurfaced and unimproved roads. The remaining 22,000 miles are surfaced and improved in various ways, ranging from gravel to concrete."

In connection with the report, reference was made to the proposal before the legislature of adding 6,600 miles to roads to the state secondary highway system.

While the department points out that such inclúse would provide substantial aid to cities and counties, the report said:

"Inclusion of additional roads must be considered on the basis of present revenues accruing to the state for highway purposes, since no additional revenues are to be eprovided.

"Actually these revenues, as estimated for the next biennium, already have been reduced by 13 per cent in the loss of federal aid. A decrease in gasoline tax revenues also must be considered."

It is estimated by officials that the cost of maintenance and minor improvement of the roads proposed for addition will average $500 a mile per year.

EMBALMING NEEDLES WANTED BY SICK MAN

LONG BEACH, May 1.—(UP)—A "doctor" in East India is stimulating a new business in this city.

Richard Dennis, San Francisco, sent a letter to Deputy Coroner Arthur L. Donlin requesting six needles used in embalming earthquake victims.

It seems the writer is suffering from rhumatism, and consulted a doctor of British East India. The "doctor" prescribed the burying of the needles under the doorstep over which Dennis passes every day.

Dennis has so much faith in the cure that he offered to pay $5 for the needles. Donlin complied with the request with the hope that the faith, not the prescription, will cure the ailment.

WIFE WHO SLEW SPOUSE SUED FOR BURIAL COST

OROVILLE, May 1.—(UP)—Convicted of slaying her husband in 1929, Mrs. Pearl Baldwin, recently released from San Quentin, has been sued for the funeral expenses incurred in the burial of William Baldwin, victim of the shooting.

Occupying the same chair she used when testifying in her own defense during the murder trial, Mrs. Baldwin denied she had authorized the funeral expenses.

The suit, brought by W. M. Thomas, local undertaker, was taken under consideration by Judge Marry Deirup.

EYELID FLICKER SAVES LIFE

LOS ANGELES, (UP) The flutter of an eye saved the life of A. M. Ridgeway. He was pronounced dead and the "body" given into the care of a mortician. The undertaker noticed an eye-lid flicker, and summoned a fire department inhalator squad. Ridgeway was revived.

VOTED HIMSELF MAJORITY

EL CERRITO, April 27—(UP)—Mayor J. R. Beck has only himself to thank for the fact he still is major of the El Cerrito city council.

When the matter of re-election came up recently, the city council was divided evenly, two favoring Beck's re-election and two councilmen believing a change was desireable.

So Beck cast the deciding vote for himself and the matter was settled.
